

OpenVoiceNews U.K.

Transparent. Unbiased. Yours.

Panoramic Countryside-View Home in Newport Listed for £1.3 Million

August 7, 2025

— Categories: Real Estate

A striking six-bedroom home designed by an architect and set in the countryside near Newport has come to market for £1.3 million.

The detached residence is located on Pentre-Poeth Road and offers more than 4,000 square feet of living space across three levels. It is listed with The Agency UK and is described as blending rural tranquility with convenient access to nearby cities, including Cardiff, Newport, and Bristol.

The estate agent highlights the home's peaceful setting: "Surrounded by countryside and open skies, the location provides peace and quiet while remaining within easy commuting distance of major cities."

Upon arrival, visitors are welcomed by a long, sweeping driveway bordered by manicured lawns, setting the tone for the property's private and elevated positioning. Parking is available for several vehicles, with additional bays located along the driveway and a covered double carport accessible via bespoke double wooden gates.

The main entrance opens into a striking double-height atrium hallway featuring floor-to-ceiling glazing and a statement pendant light. This bright, spacious welcome area reflects the home's contemporary design and attention to detail.

At the centre of the home is a large open-plan kitchen and dining area, fitted with a made-to-measure Sigma kitchen. The space includes quartz worktops and high-end appliances and flows directly into a snug with bi-folding doors that lead out to the garden, creating a seamless link between indoor and outdoor living.

Other ground-floor highlights include a lounge with a log burner, a utility room with access to the rear patio, a wood-panelled den with built-in storage and a multimedia unit, and a study complete with a picture window offering uninterrupted countryside views.

A modern oak and glass staircase runs through the centre of the home, connecting all three floors and adding to the open, airy feel of the layout.

The first floor houses five spacious double bedrooms, each equipped with fitted wardrobes. Two of these bedrooms come with their own ensuite bathrooms. The master suite offers a touch of luxury with a Juliet balcony accessed through French doors, a floor-to-ceiling window overlooking the landscape, and a bathroom that features both a rainfall shower and a full-sized panelled bath.

The sixth bedroom is situated on the top floor and is currently used as a creative studio. The space is filled with natural light from Velux skylights and includes a Cabrio balcony window, offering panoramic views of the surrounding area.

Outside, the property features a large landscaped garden with multiple areas for relaxation and entertaining. A stone patio, accessible from both the kitchen-diner and utility room, provides the ideal setting for al fresco dining or family gatherings. Beyond the patio, an open lawn offers further space for recreation or quiet enjoyment.

The Agency UK commented on the home: “This is a truly unique, architect-designed home, combining the best of luxury, practicality, and aesthetic brilliance. With unmatched countryside views, over 4,000 sq ft of space, and high-end finishes throughout, this home must be seen to be fully appreciated. A rare opportunity to own one of the finest residences in the area.”

With its thoughtful design, luxurious features, and convenient location, the property is expected to attract interest from buyers looking for a balance of scenic living and city connectivity.