Elderly Man Injured in Road Rage Incident in Logan, Queensland

August 10, 2025

— Categories: Breaking News

An elderly man in his 60s was hospitalized with serious injuries after being struck by a vehicle during a road rage incident in Logan, Queensland, on Saturday night. Police are seeking the driver involved, as well as any witnesses who may have information.

According to Queensland Police Service (QPS), the altercation began around 7:20 p.m. on the Mandew Street overpass in Shailer Park, involving the drivers of a Holden Commodore and a Mazda 2. While tensions escalated between the two motorists, a separate and unidentified vehicle traveling in the opposite direction struck the man. Authorities reported that the victim sustained serious but non-life-threatening injuries and was transported to Princess Alexandra Hospital for treatment.

The driver of the vehicle that hit the man did not remain at the scene. Law enforcement officials are urging the individual to come forward and assist with the investigation. Police are also appealing to anyone who witnessed the incident or who may have dashcam or other video footage to contact them immediately.

Authorities have not confirmed the exact circumstances leading to the man being in the roadway or the nature of the dispute between the two drivers. However, they emphasized that road rage incidents can escalate rapidly and carry serious consequences.

QPS detectives are reviewing available evidence and speaking with those already identified as being present at the time of the event. The public has been reminded that withholding information in such cases can hinder the investigation and delay justice.

Anyone with relevant information is encouraged to contact Policelink by phone at 131 444 or submit details anonymously through Crime Stoppers by calling 1800 333 000. Providing accurate accounts and footage may be critical in identifying the driver and determining the full sequence of events.

The incident serves as a reminder of the dangers of aggressive driving behavior and the importance of maintaining composure on the road. While law enforcement continues its investigation, the community has been asked to remain vigilant and to report dangerous driving immediately.

Authorities have not released further details about the unidentified driver or the victim's current condition beyond confirming that his injuries are serious but not critical. Updates are expected as the investigation progresses and additional evidence is gathered.
