A man is in critical condition following a stabbing incident at a busy shopping centre in Melbourne, sparking a major police investigation and heightened public concern.

A man is fighting for his life after being stabbed at a shopping centre in Melbourne, prompting a major response from emergency services and law enforcement.

The incident took place on Sunday afternoon at a shopping complex in Melbourne's northern suburbs. Shoppers were left shocked as police and paramedics rushed to the scene. The victim, believed to be in his 30s, suffered serious injuries and was quickly transported to a nearby hospital, where he remains in critical condition.

According to Victoria Police, the stabbing happened inside the shopping centre during operating hours, raising immediate concerns about public safety. Authorities are actively investigating the case and reviewing security footage from inside the centre to piece together what led to the violent attack.

“We are appealing to anyone who may have seen or heard anything unusual to come forward,” a spokesperson from Victoria Police said. “Public assistance is crucial in helping us identify the person responsible and to understand the circumstances surrounding this incident.”
