Balochistan Chief Minister Sarfraz Bugti has confirmed that authorities have arrested a suspect in the widely publicized murder of a couple, a case that gained national attention after a video of the incident went viral online.

Balochistan Chief Minister Sarfraz Bugti confirmed that authorities have arrested a suspect involved in the shocking murder of a couple, an incident that gained widespread attention after a disturbing video of the crime surfaced online. The Chief Minister also stated that a formal case has been registered, and the investigation is actively underway.

The video, which circulated rapidly on social media, showed the violent killing of a man and a woman, sparking public outrage and demands for immediate justice. The footage reportedly captured the moment of the crime, offering vital evidence that helped police identify and track down the suspect. Although authorities have not publicly disclosed the suspect's identity, officials confirmed that the person is now in custody.

Chief Minister Bugti reiterated that his administration remains committed to strengthening law enforcement and ensuring justice for victims of violence.

As the case unfolds, authorities continue to gather evidence and interview witnesses. The government has pledged that the trial will be transparent and that no political or social pressure will influence the outcome. The public awaits further developments, hoping for swift justice in a case that has shocked the conscience of many across the country.
